

THE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH (MakSPH) is one of the four schools in Makerere University College of Health Sciences, Uganda. The mission of MakSPH is to promote the attainment of better health for the people of Uganda and beyond through Public health training, Research and Community service, with the guiding principles of Quality, Relevance, Responsiveness, Equity and Social Justice.

MAKSPH OFFERS FOR EXCHANGE AS A HOST INSTITUTION

FOR STUDENTS WE OFFER SHORT COURSES:

- Applied Biostatistics I & II
- Principles & Practice of Epidemiology
- Clinical & Community Trials
- Public Health in Complex Emergency.
- Nutrition in Emergency.
- Soon – Qualitative Research Methods.

FOR TEACHERS WE WELCOME:

- Academic staff to facilitate courses for a Fellowship Programme on Health Systems Management
- Academic staff with expertise in various areas e.g. nutrition, reproductive health, environmental health, communicable disease control, health policy, planning & management , Epidemiology & Biostatistics
- External examiners for Masters programmes

MAKSPH NEEDS FOR EXCHANGE AS A SENDING INSTITUTION

FOR STUDENTS WE REQUEST FOR:

- Opportunity to attend short courses

FOR TEACHING WE NEED:

- Experience in innovative learning-teaching approaches
- To work on joint educational research projects

FOR PEDAGOGICAL STAFF WE NEED:

- Training in e-learning
- Tools and methods for students assessment
- Experience in quality assurance systems
- Collaborate in curriculum development

CONTACT PERSON:

www.musph.ac.ug

ELIZABETH NABIWEMBA

e-mail: enabiwem@musph.ac.ug

Tel: 256-712-500055